1. A VP officer training school was located in a building near the Am Gesundbrunnen resort installations in Bad Freienwalde (N 53/V 28). The current instruction course was attended by 300 officers and was to last until 15 May 1950. The school was commanded by Polizeirat Schinter. Deputy was Polizeirat Glizinsky. Both are former German officers and graduates of training courses in the Soviet Union. Two Soviet officers wearing major's insignia had supervisory duties at the school. *
2. Six 180-man VP units moved into other spa hotels on Am Gesundbrunnen on 17 April 1950. They were armed with carbines, pistols and one machine gun per unit.
3. A storeroom for rapid-fire rifles was located near the VP quarters. None of the rifles had been issued, however, since [redacted] few police were trained with that type of arm.
4. The food office of the Bad Freienwalde municipal administration was to provide daily rations for 1,500 VP personnel. The office had received instructions to stock rations for 1,500 additional police.
